

It's Back! BUZZ Presents: The RAT RACE

Best described as scavenger hunt meets the "The Amazing Race", become an important part of a truly unique event!!
Our last event reached over 100 people and raised over $10,000.00

Event Summary: It's part "Amazing Race" and part scavenger hunt. However you describe it, the Rat Race challenges teams of two people each to race against the clock (and other teams), solving clues and completing fun filled tasks along the way. A prize of $TBD is at stake as teams race around local destinations, including businesses, parks, residences, retail store, restaurants located around Arlington Heights.

Date: Saturday, September 25, 2010

Time: Registration/Instructions begin at 1:30 pm.
The Race runs from 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm.

Location: Registration/starting line takes place at Eddie's Restaurant & Lounge in downtown Arlington Heights. Racers will visit 10 locations total, all located within walking distance of downtown Arlington Heights. After the race, Racers and partygoers will enjoy food and drinks at Eddie's.

Estimated Attendance: We will accept 50 race teams (100 people) and 50 partygoers. Racers and partygoers come from all over Chicagoland to attend the event.

Tickets: $100 per team, $35 per party attendee.

Proceeds: All proceeds from this event will be donated to WINGS to support its Transitional Housing and Safe House Programs

For more information about Buzz and the Rat Race visit www.projectbuzz.org